Wild Hearts Intern & Volunteer Guidelines and Requirements

Please review the following so you will know what to anticipate from us and what we will expect from you once you are accepted in our program.

- We will set up a schedule for you which will be agreeable to both parties. We will expect you to be here by your start time and work through your shift. If you are sick, please call your supervisor by 7:30 a.m. that morning. Excessive tardiness and/or absences will result in your termination. Absences and tardiness must be made up. Your attendance/tardiness record will be reflected in our letter or recommendation for you, so it DOES MATTER.
- Bad weather: We live in the Midwest and experience weather extremes often. In the animal industry their care is top priority, especially during bad weather. You are expected to report for work during bad weather (fog, ice, hail, rain, snow, wind, heat. etc). Unless you are in immediate weather danger, you are expected to take the necessary steps to ensure you arrive at work on time. This may mean leaving earlier so you can drive slower and arrive safe. If you cannot leave your driveway, you must text a photo of your car/driveway to your supervisor, let us know you are working on it and provide an estimation of when you will be here. If you foresee you'll have problems getting to your internship during bad weather this may not be the internship for you. Calling off is frowned upon in this profession.
- Cell phones; calls or texting are for emergencies or use during your break. If you abuse your cell phone, you will be asked to put it away. Do not use cell phones during programs. I-Pods & headphones are strictly forbidden during work hours.
- You will have daily protocols which must be done unless excused by your supervisor. Your supervisor will check on your protocols daily as well as any infractions, tardiness's or absences.
- Choose one animal and teach yourself something new about it each week.
- If you feel unsure about completing a chore or handling an animal, immediately ask a staff person to assist you.
- Strive to bring a positive, outgoing and helpful attitude to our facility. Negativity and drama is NOT acceptable.
- It gets very hot and humid in the summer, so please drink a lot of water and wear sunscreen to prevent dehydration and sunburn. Wear non-slip shoes that you don't mind getting dirty, work boots, warm clothes and gloves in winter.
- Any photos or videos must be approved by a Wild Hearts supervisor before posting on any social networks.
- Your input is important to us. If you have problems or questions, please use discretion and talk to us in private. We are here for you.
- You will be responsible for the safety and security of animals, please make sure to check them throughout the day.
- You are not allowed in the director's office or personal home areas unless asked.
- Friends and family are not permitted to "tag along" on your work days. Everyone working around animals must go through orientation and be trained.
- Wild Hearts is not responsible for your personal property.
- Wild Hearts reserves the right to make changes in policy, including those here, at any time.
